KIPLING'S LATEST.

A Contribution to Cause of Soldiers' Families.

The poem entitled "The Absent-Minded Beggar" is Rudyard Kipling's contribution to a fund for the wives and children of the British reservists sent to South Africa. He sold it to the London "Daily Mail" for $1,250, which amount he donated to the fund.

Throughout the English speaking world, the idea has taken a firm hold, and an immense sum has already been contributed. Local generosity is shown in the fact that a first contribution of $1000 goes forward today. Further donations will be received by Theo. H. Davies & Co., The Hawaiian News Co., and Catton, Neill & Co.

RUMORED DEATH OF THE BOER COMMANDER

Was General Joubert Killed In Battle?

AMERICAN SOLDIERS HOT FOOT ON AGUINALDO'S FRESH TRAIL.

Japan and Russia—The Submarine Torpedo Boat Holland a Terror—Panama for Annexation.

GENERAL JOUBERT, Commander-in-Chief of Boer Forces.

DURBAN, Nov. 12.—The Times of Natal publishes a telegram from Lorenzo Marques saying that General Joubert was killed in action on Thursday, November 9th.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—The story from Durban that General Joubert was killed by a fragment of a shell from a British naval gun is not worth consideration, as doubtless it originated with the natives. An inquiry by the Sun correspondent at the War Office this evening brought out an answer which was tantamount to an authoritative denial, the officials stating that they had news of Joubert subsequent to the rumored date of his death. Another Durban rumor that General Lucas Myer, who commanded the Boers at Dundee, was ill and had returned to Pretoria, is equally unconfirmable.

LONDON, Nov. 16.—So far there is nothing to confirm the report of the death of General Joubert, commander in chief of the Boer forces, though the report comes from many different sources. At the same time many people believe the report to be well founded, as the General's death is said to have occurred November 9th, when the Boer riflemen were understood to be within 1,500 yards of Ladysmith. As severe fighting between the British and the Boers the same day has since been reported it is regarded in some quarters as quite possible that General Joubert, always noted for his personal courage and coolness, may have dangerously exposed himself in a personal reconnaissance of the British position.

If Joubert were really killed on the battlefield it would seem to be the first death for such a gallant soldier. Even his foes admit that he fought squarely, and his action when General Symons died, in cabling his sympathy to the bereaved widow, established him in the high regard of all soldiers. It is claimed that the death of Joubert would be likely to lead to the adoption by the Boers of bolder and more active tactics, as it is well known General Joubert was a cautious and conservative commander and that he had considerable difficulty in restraining his hot-headed followers.

FELL INTO A BOER TRAP.

ESTCOURT, Natal, Wednesday, November 15.—An armored train, having on board a half-company of Durban volunteers and a half-company of the Dublin Fusiliers, started to Chieveley early this morning. On its return it was shelled by the artillery of the Boers placed in four positions. Two trucks in front of the engine left the rails, toppling over. While the train was thus helpless the Durban and Dublin faced the Boers in skirmishing order and the Boers poured shot and shell into the crippled train. The derailed trucks were with great difficulty removed and the line was cleared, when the engine and tender steamed back.

During this juncture Lieutenant Winston Churchill of the Fourth Hussars, son of the late Lord Randolph Churchill, displayed much courage, as also did the driver and fireman. It is feared the Durban and Dublin fared badly. A Red Cross party has gone out.

ESTCOURT, Natal, Wednesday, November 15, 9:50 p. m.—At 6 o'clock this evening the Red Cross train returned. Mr. Brislone reported that, on meeting the Boer patrol, he was halted and asked what he wanted. He replied that he had come with the train to remove the killed and wounded. The Boers told him to make his request in writing and Dr. Brislone complied. After waiting for two hours another Boer came and informed Dr. Brislone that as General Joubert was very far away no answer to the request could be furnished until tomorrow morning. The Boer said that if Dr. Brislone would then return with a white flag he could count upon a reply from General Joubert.

Dr. Brislone inquired whether there were many wounded. The Boer replied that he had heard there were about seven. He declined to give any information regarding Lieutenant Winston Churchill. It has rained all day and is still raining.

LATER PARTICULARS.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The latest dispatches from Estcourt regarding the armored train engagement say that the train was captured by an explosion, presumably dynamite. The engine returned to Estcourt with two dead fusiliers and the following wounded hanging on: Captain Wylie, three non-commissioned officers and nine privates, all belonging to the Durban volunteers. There is no news from Ladysmith, but a correspondent at Estcourt reports that efforts to telegraph to the beleaguered troops were answered by a Boer heliograph, which read: "Will be with you tomorrow."

BOERS MEET WITH A REVERSE.

ESTCOURT, Nov. 16, 10 a. m.—A missionary, a native but a reliable man, who arrived here yesterday from Ladysmith, reports that a big fight took place there on Friday, November 10th. He says that volunteers went out in the early morning and drew the enemy from their position into a flat, where the regular troops, under Sir George White, outmaneuvered them by outflanking the Boers, administering a crushing defeat and inflicting great loss. More than 200 Kaffirs, the missionary says, were employed by the Boers to bury their dead, and two trains, each drawn by two engines, carried away the wounded.

DISCORD AT PRETORIA.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—According to a special dispatch from Lorenzo Marques, General Lucas Meyer has gone to Pretoria for his health. However, a difference of opinion exists among the commanders. The Boer military council wants the army moved elsewhere, but General Joubert insists that Ladysmith must fall first.

PERHAPS A FILIBUSTER.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—According to the Bombay correspondent of the Daily Mail, a small Russian warship passed Aden yesterday (Thursday), bound for the Persian gulf and the British third-class cruiser Pomone has been ordered to proceed thither.

THE CHASE OF AGUINALDO.

His Wife's Wardrobe and Other Personal Effects Captured.

MANILA, Nov. 16, 9:30 p. m.—Reports have been received here from General Young dated Humnigan yesterday. Humnigan is about thirty miles east of San Fabian. General Young is supposed to have advanced considerably farther toward San Fabian.

A correspondent of the Associated Press telegraphs an account of the rapid pace with which General Young covered the road with his cavalry. The Macabebe scouts completely surprised and demoralized the insurgents around the low country. A messenger and reinforcements who were captured say no town from San Jose to San Nicholas expected the arrival of the Americans until a day or two after they actually arrived.

Aguinaldo and his Government are said to be making desperate efforts to escape to Bayombong. All the information here is that he is still in the low country.

Lieutenant Johnson, with Troop M of the Third Cavalry, captured yesterday at San Nicholas twelve barrels containing the wardrobe of Aguinaldo's wife, some personal effects, the records of the Secretary of War and much commissary and medical supplies. Senora Aguinaldo probably escaped over the divide, but the Secretary of War is thought to be inside the lines.

Colonel Wessels captured at Tayay several hundred thousand pounds of rice, 5,700 pounds of salt, 1,500 pounds of flour marked "Dayton, O.," 2,500 pounds of sugar, 1,300 new uniforms and hundreds of thousands of Mauser shells.

WIRELESS COMMUNICATION

PROSPECTS OF THE INTER-ISLAND TELEGRAPH COMPANY, LIMITED.

PRELIMINARY STATEMENT.

Inter-Island telegraphic communication has long been sorely needed in Hawaii. The news, therefore, that Mr. Cross was going to New York to see the actual testing of the Marconi system under the inspection of the United States Government and, if possible, obtain from the representatives of Mr. Marconi's company a contract for the use of the system in these Islands, was received by the community with great satisfaction. The mission proved to be an unqualified success and now the undersigned take pleasure in announcing the proposed organization of a company to take over their rights.

On the 28th of June last the following named companies and persons agreed, in consideration of our making an investigation of the expense, income and practicability of a system of telegraphic communication between the principal Hawaiian Islands, that for the period of five years from the completion of such system of telegraphic communication as we might have in operation, they would deliver to us or any corporation organized to take over our rights, all messages that they might have for transmission to such of the principal Islands of this group as might be brought into telegraphic communication with the Island of Oahu, provided that the system of inter-island communication was in operation within one year from the 28th day of June, 1899. Great credit is due to these persons and corporations for the confidence which they expressed in the results of the proposed undertaking. They are as follows: T. H. Davies & Co., Hoffschlaeger Co., Ltd., J. Hopp & Co., J. M. Dowsett, Evening Bulletin Pub. Co., W. W. Dimond & Co., Ltd., M. McInerney, Pacific Hardware Co., Hawaiian Gazette Co., Ltd., Washington Mercantile Co., Ltd., M. Phillips & Co., Hawaiian Hardware Co., Hawaiian Star Newspaper Ass'n., Honolulu Iron Works Co., Wm. G. Irwin & Co., M. S. Grinbaum & Co., Inter-Island Steam Navigation Co., Gear, Lansing & Co., Catton, Neill & Co., Ltd., M. W. McChesney & Sons, E. O. Hall & Son, Henry Waterhouse & Co., Wilder's S. S. Co., Macfarlane & Co., C. Brewer & Co., F. A. Schaefer & Co., Oahu Railway & Land Co., Hilo Railroad Co., Hawaiian Electric Co., A. F. Cooke, Olaf Sugar Co., Ltd., W. C. Peacock & Co., Ltd., Hollister Drug Co., Hus-tace & Co., Ltd., W. H. Hoogs, G. R. Carter, Union Feed Co., Henry May & Co., William F. Erving, L. B. Kerr.

CAPITALIZATION.

It was our original intention to have a close corporation but we have received so many applications for a portion of the stock that we have decided to throw it open to popular subscription. It is now proposed to organize a corporation with a capital of $100,000.00 to be divided into 2000 shares of the par value of $50.00 per share, with the privilege of extension to $250,000.00. One-half of the stock, representing the exclusive franchise obtained from the Wireless Telegraph & Signal Company, Ltd., of London, England, will be paid up. The other half will be assessable and devoted exclusively to the complete development of the system. It will be called for as the necessities of the system require.
